Video Screening at 516 ARTS

Contemporary art holds a mirror up to contemporary culture and this is a perfect opportunity to spur your students to consider current ideas and re-think the familiar. Screenings at 516 ARTS are free of charge, casual and followed by an open discussion where ideas and opinions flow freely. We have found that the offering of extra credit is a great way to encourage attendance.

If you would like to attend this event as a group or simply ask students to attend, please feel free to contact me at barbara@516arts.org.

Episode Description:

How is our understanding of the natural world deeply cultural? Episode 3: Ecology delves into the work of four artists who explore the relationship of nature and culture, including the submission of wilderness to civilization, the foundations of scientific knowledge, the impact of technology on biology, and our relationship to the earth forged by working the land.

Artists Featured:

Ursula von Rydingsvard • Inigo Manglano-Ovalle • Robert Adams • Mark Dion
